

1. It is believed that individuals who engage in reading books can cultivate greater imagination and linguistic abilities than those who prefer television. To what extent do you agree or disagree? (Education)

2. There are those who consider work to be the paramount aspect of life, suggesting that without career success, life loses its meaning. To what extent do you agree or disagree? (Work)

3. The debate exists on whether young people should have the freedom to select their own profession or if they should adopt a pragmatic approach, considering their future more seriously. Discuss both views and give your own opinion. (Occupation)

4. Some believe that all individuals who break the law should be placed in prison as a form of punishment. However, others hold the view that there are more effective alternatives to deal with lawbreakers. Discuss both views and give your own opinion. (Crime)

5. A noticeable lack of students opting for science subjects at universities is observed in various countries. What are the reasons and what are the effects on society? (Education)

6. In certain nations, parents have high academic expectations for their children, resulting in limited leisure time. What could be the potential benefits and drawbacks of this for the children and the society they are part of? (Society)

7. The best way to ensure children's development is for parents to participate in parenting courses. Do you agree or disagree?

8. With the last century witnessing significant technological advancements, some argue that these developments come with negative repercussions for our lives. To what extent do you agree or disagree? (Technology)

9. As countries progress, there is a trend towards living alone or in smaller family units. What might be the causes of this trend and its effects on society? (Society)

10. When it comes to architectural design, some argue that functionality should be more important than aesthetics. To what extent do you agree or disagree? (Culture)

11. The ethics of using animals for medical research to benefit humans is contested, with some in favor and others against. Discuss both views and give your own opinion. (Animal)

12. The decline in the quality of life within major cities is a growing concern in many countries. What are the potential causes and what solutions could be implemented to address this issue? (Society)

13. The importance of teaching history to children in schools is debated, with some advocating for its inclusion and others favoring more contemporary subjects. Discuss both views and give your own opinion.

(Education)

14. Some people think that the government should offer financial support and care to old people, while others think that people should save money for their future life. Discuss both views and give your own opinion.
(Society)

15. With space travel being a reality, the prospect of space tourism is on the horizon. Do you view this as a positive or negative development?
(Technology)

16. In the past, people ate local food in season. Nowadays, people buy a variety of foods from all over the world. Do the advantages outweigh the disadvantages? (Social)

17. Some people believe that using modern technology (digital photographs, blogs) is the best way to record and remember important personal events. Others think traditional methods (making photo albums, writing diaries) are better. Discuss both views and give your own opinion.
(Science and Technology)

18. More and more people no longer read the newspaper or watch TV programs to get news. They get news about the world through the Internet. Is this a positive or negative development? (Media)

19. Fresh water is a limited resource in some parts of the world. Today, increasing demand has made it a global problem. What are the causes of this growing demand? What can governments and individuals do to respond to the problem? (Environment)

20. Many museums and historical sites are mainly visited by tourists but not local people. Why is this the case and what can be done to attract more local people to visit these places? (Tourism)

21. Nowadays, there is a tendency for media coverage to focus on urgent issues and situations rather than positive developments. Some people believe that it is harmful to individuals and society. Do you agree or disagree? (Social)

22. Scientists believe that computers will become more intelligent than humans. Some say it is a positive development while others say it is a negative development. Discuss both views and give your own opinion. (Technology)

23. Pop stars earn more than classical music performers. Some people think this is completely reasonable while others think it is unfair. Discuss both these views and give your own opinion. (Entertainment)

24. In most successful companies, some people believe that communication between employer and employee is the most important factor, others believe that other factors are more important. Discuss both views and give your opinion.